RECYCLE FOR KRAB AND THE ENVIRONMENT

KRAB receives 1¢ per pound of recycled material taken to the Fremont Recycling Station. The money adds up fast and you can support KRAB and the Fremont Station at the same time. Mark your cans, bottles (sorted by color), and newspapers "KRAB" and take them to FREMONT RECYCLING STATION #1 3505 Evanston North in the heart of the Fremont District

MARATHON UPDATE: The final total Marathon pledges are $14,500....$5,500 short of our goal
.....the sunshine and the Sonics' bid for the NBA Finals put a real dent in the evening hours.
Anyone know of a sugar daddy or momma who can pledge $5,500?!??? Thanks again to everyone who sent in their pledges, volunteered on the phones, and produced special programs (the tremendous interest in R&B Day has resulted in a new program!). ONLY HALF OF THE PLEDGES HAVE BEEN PAID....KEEP KRAB ALIVE DURING THE SUMMER
BY SENDING IN YOUR PLEDGE NOW.

THE JACK STRAW MEMORIAL FOUNDATION BOARD OF TRUSTEES...Sound like a bunch of stuffed shirts sitting in a mahogany paneled room???? Not a chance! The JSMF Board is one of the hardest working volunteer community boards around.
They dedicate their time, talent and resources to help direct the station through thick and thin.

The Board is looking for nominations of candidates to fill several vacancies. Considerations include:

- The nominee must be willing to support non-commercial, public access KRAB with his/her time, energy and talent.
- The nominee should bring to the Board some area of expertise, and/or community perspective that will enhance the diversity of people on the Board.

Send a one-page description of your nominee to Mayumi Tsutakawa c/o KRAB, 1406 Harvard, Seattle, WA 98122.

NOTE: Because of space requirements, "Report to the Listeners" and "From the Listeners" will not appear in this issue. Please continue sending your comments and suggestions to Letters, KRAB, 1406 Harvard, Seattle, Washington 98122.

Special thanks to Dorothy Grupp and Helene Silverman for guide production.
